Come along to our Older Persons Awareness and Learning (OPAL) event in Bushey!

OPAL events aim to reduce the vulnerability of residents to scams, burglaries, fires and more by showcasing the support, advice and help available in the local community.

So why not come along to hear information and advice about a range of services provided by different agencies, meet new people and enjoy free refreshments.

Residents are offered advice and support on:

- safety in and outside of the home
- cold callers, rogue traders and scams
- health and wellbeing
- how to live happier, healthier and more independent lives

Information, one-to-one advice and freebies will also be available at stands at the event.

It is important that you arrive on time to ensure that you do not miss out on any of the activities, speakers, freebies or refreshments.

Although this is a free event, residents will need a ticket.

To receive your free ticket(s) please contact Hertsmere Community Safety Partnership on 020 8207 7801 or partnership.support@hertsmere.gov.uk

This event is first-come, first-served, so book early to be sure of your place.
